

Serging Curves and Corners videos

Outside Curves and Outside Corners

<https://youtu.be/P32AaSIBXAw>

Published on Jul 1, 2014

Margaret from Sewing Machine Warehouse Australia will guide you in using your Overlocker / Serger to handle corners and curves in your sewing projects.

Inward Corners

<https://youtu.be/tCNotN-xekQ>

Published on Mar 13, 2013

Serging Inward Corners. Clip into the very corner, diagonally and inward, about 4mm's before sewing. When approaching the corner, lift the presser foot to turn the work and gently pull on the corner to open the clipped area. Put the presser foot down and continue sewing a straight line. You've just finished an inward corner.